

Talent Historical Society

Is proud to host

“Tuesday Evening at the Museum”

A series of presentations and discussions featuring topics of interest to our members to be held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the THS Museum.

The Forty fifth Presentation in our Series:

“The History of the Hooker Oak”

April 23, 2019

6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Presented by Debra Moon

Join Debra, other members of the Talent Historical Society, and the general public as she presents a photo show and discussion about the famous Hooker Oak of Northern California, the site of many interesting historical events including the 1938 filming of Robin Hood with Errol Flynn.

Debra is a new resident of Talent, having purchased a home here a year ago January. She is a retired teacher and a published author. She is enthusiastic about preserving and sharing local history. Debra currently serves on the Talent Historical Society Board.

You do not need to be a member of the Talent Historical Society to attend.

Well behaved children are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Due to Fire Code restrictions, attendance will be limited to the first 72 attendees.

There is no admission charged but donations are gladly accepted.

Talent Historical Society Museum is located at 105 North Market Street in Talent, Oregon
