

Talent Historical Society

Is proud to host

“Tuesday Evening at the Museum”

A series of presentations and discussions featuring topics of interest to our members to be held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the THS Museum.

The Forty sixth Presentation in our Series:

“The History and Making of the Tower of Talent”

May 28, 2019

6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Presented by Steve Brairton

Join us as Steve relates the origin and history of the tower at Towerview Vineyards. Built by Steve and his family over the past decade and a half, the Brairton family has enjoyed an adventure creating a unique and fascinating structure just outside Talent. The Tower of Talent offers incredible views, a slide, a fireman’s pole, a zipline, a secret room and other interesting features.

Steve and the Tower were featured on HGTV’s Mighty Tiny Houses. Steve will be offering for sale the first vintage from his vineyard this evening.

You do not need to be a member of the Talent Historical Society to attend.

Well behaved children are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Due to Fire Code restrictions, attendance will be limited to the first 72 attendees.

There is no admission charged but donations are gladly accepted.

Talent Historical Society Museum is located at 105 North Market Street in Talent, Oregon
