

Tuesday Evening At the Museum

August 22 at 6:30 pm

From Cedar Rapids, Iowa to Talent, Oregon

Mike Hall will be reading from his great grandfather, John Robison's diary and sharing oral history from his family's years in Talent. His grandfather's diary was written before the family ventured West on the 1853 Preacher Wagon Train to the Rogue Valley. The Robison's were near neighbors with the Beesons and other prominent Talent farm families.

This meeting is offered free to the public in the airconditioned Talent Museum located at

105 N. Market Street.

Refreshments included.