Featuring Matt Witt

A Talent resident who contributes as a photographer, writer and trainer to local grassroots organizations in the Talent area.

Matt will be presenting a photography slide presentation including images of wildlife, landscapes, and fine art photography from the Rogue Valley and surrounding ecosystems. Matt started taking photographs years ago to preserve his memories from backpacking trips throughout the American West. Over time, he has often focused in on specific details, stripped down to their essentials, as a way to more deeply appreciate the natural world.

Mr. Witt has been selected as Artist in Residence at Crater Lake National Park, John Day Fossil Beds National Monument, Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument and PLAYA in Summer Lake, Oregon.

You do not need to be a member of the Talent Historical Society to attend.

Well behaved children are welcome and encouraged to attend.

There is no admission charged but donations are gladly accepted. Talent Historical Society Museum is located at 105 North Market Street in Talent, Oregon
